Elevating the stories of effective leadership and innovation taking place in Nebraska public schools.

OUR MISSION

The NCSA Ambassador Program and the Nebraska Public Schools Advantage travels to all corners of the state to collect and promote success stories both big and small taking place in our public schools. We focus on stories of exemplary leadership and innovative education practices to educate, motivate and inspire educators and the communities they serve.

THE POWER OF PUBLIC EDUCATION

There is something special about the power of public education. Every school day in Nebraska, public schools welcome students into their classrooms and aim to deliver a quality education to any family who seeks it. By both design and principle, public schools are committed to every student who walks through their doors no matter his or her capabilities, background or socioeconomic status. In this diversity lies the essence of public schools.

All over Nebraska successes both big and small are taking place. Success can be a child experiencing the subtle spark of comprehension during a teacher's personalized lesson plan. Or it can be a once-struggling student's proud walk across the stage to receive a high school diploma. And sometimes it's an effective new approach to 21st century education spearheaded by a district's superintendent.

SHARING SUCCESS STORIES

The transformational power of public education is no secret to those who work within it, but it can go unnoticed outside the classroom. The NCSA Ambassador Program and the Nebraska Public School Advantage collects and highlights these multifaceted success stories from every corner of our state and we will show just how these public schools and the leaders within them make it happen.

WHO WE ARE

The NCSA Ambassador Program and the Nebraska Public School Advantage is a collaborative effort created by the Nebraska Council of School Administrators (NCSA) through a generous contribution from the Sherwood Foundation. Working in partnership with Nebraska Loves Public Schools, we aim to showcase the compelling stories and extraordinary work happening in Nebraska's public schools. Share your story with us at news@ncsa.org.
