Re: Nebraska Fall Ed Tech Conference

The Nebraska Council of School Administrators (NCSA) and the Nebraska Educational Technology Association (NETA) are excited to continue a partnership to provide a comprehensive and informative conference on technologies available and utilized in Nebraska schools. Today's students are actively engaged in using technology. They are early adapters of new technology and appear to be light-years ahead of the rest of the adult world. We challenge school leaders to understand and to successfully integrate technology to develop 21st century schools.

Enclosed, please find information on exhibiting and sponsorship for the Nebraska Fall Ed Tech Conference to be held November 1, 2019, at the Younes Conference Center in Kearney, Nebraska.
